

Air1 is an excellent resource for our community for family christian music.
If Air1 is replaced by LPFM a great dis-service would be done to the christian community in this area by not allowing alternative music to be available.
The service provided by Air1 is a public service by giving the general audience and alternative to other forms of music.